Age: 40 years		LISA MEGERICHIAN , Conservator, is petitioner.	NEEDS/PROBLEMS/COMMENTS:
		Petitioner proposes to sell the former residence of the conservatee.	1. Petition states that the conservatee owes his parents $100,000.00 on a promissory note. The First Account approved on 3/25/14 did not mention the promissory note as required by Probate Code §1063(g)(1). This petition is the first time the promissory note has been mentioned. 2. Petition does not request and the order does not require the sale of the real property to be confirmed by the court. However, the court may require any sale of the real property to be court confirmed.
Cont. from		The Conservatee owns a ½ interest in the real property and his parents, John and Teresa Assodourian own the other ½ interest.

		There is a mortgage secured by a Deed of Trust on the real property in the amount of $241,992.59 as of 8/1/14.
		The conservatee's estate owes John and Teresa Assodourian the principal amount of $100,000.00 on a promissory note pertaining to the purchase of the real property.
		John and Teresa Assodourian desire to sell their interest in the real property, and it is believed to be in the best interest of the conservatorship that the conservatee's interest be sold to pay off the debt.
		The conservatee is currently living with his parents and does not have the ability to live in the residence. Other alternatives are not available because the conservatee's estate is insufficient to pay off the debt owed on the house.
		Petitioner discussed the proposed sale with the conservatee. Conservatee supports the proposed sale.
		Wherefore, Petitioner prays for an order authorizing Petitioner to sell the former residence of the conservatee, and for such other and further orders as the court may deem proper.
			Note: The conservatorship's 50% interest in the real property was appraised at $122,500 as of 2/27/13.

Petitioners also request reimbursement totaling $11,036.40-$10,499.77 ($4,210.45 for payments made from personal funds during conservatorship of the decedent and $6,289.32 made after the conservatee's death, pursuant to Exhibits A and B of Revised Supplement, proportionately pursuant to each person's deposits into the account.

- Renee Dauer requests reimbursement of $1,427.34 for payments made during conservatorship and $2,132.08 made after the conservatee's death (total $3,559.42).
- Marjorie Dauer-Piper requests $1,486.29 for payments made during conservatorship and $2,220.13 made after the conservatee's death (total $3,706.42).
- Mary Dauer requests $1,296.82 for payments made during conservatorship and $1,937.11 made after the conservatee's death (total: $3,233.93).

Distribution: Department of Health Care Services Medi-Cal lien the remaining amount of $21,886.82 $23,173.95, plus any other amounts not now known or discovered to satisfy the remaining balance of the claim ($190,763.24), and thereafter to Petitioners as heirs.

NEEDS/PROBLEMS/COMMENTS:

1. Examiner Notes previously noted: Petitioners request a total of $11,036.40 in reimbursement for expenses paid during the conservatee's lifetime dating back to January 2011. The petition did not provide authority or explanation for this request, so Examiner was tasked with reviewing the Conservatorship Case 08CEPR01182. It appears that the Court's order entered 10-15-13 on the Third and Final Account in Conservatorship Case 08CEPR01182 states: "Upon the presentation and approval by the Court of an accounting, Petitioners and Mary Dauer shall be reimbursed for payments made from their personal funds for the care of the conservator upon the sale of the residence." (This is noted because it would have been helpful if this petition had referred to the Court's authorization of this request.)

The Conservatorship file indicates that Petitioners and their mother, Mary Dauer, deposited $100/month into an account "held by them" to pay for the conservatee's expenses not covered by the Conservatee's income beginning in January 2011. The narrative described that items paid from this account included Kaiser health insurance, State Farm Homeowner's Insurance, PG&E for the conservatee's residence, Biola Community Service District (water service), and the Probate Bond. However, it appears that this account "held by them" was not considered to be a part of the conservatorship estate, and was not included in the accounts.

Petitioners, in Exhibit "D" to this petition, do not provide an accounting of these funds for reimbursement. Rather, Exhibit "D" only indicates deposits into the account "held by them." It does not provide a schedule of disbursements from that account.

The Court's order authorized reimbursement upon account. Therefore, need accounting for the $11,036.40 requested.

Revised Supplement provides Disbursements Schedules (Exhibits A and B) from the account covering the periods before and after the conservatee's death and includes $10,499.77 in disbursements as previously described: Kaiser health insurance, State Farm Homeowner's Insurance, PG&E for the conservatee's residence, Biola Community Service District (water service), Probate Bond. Petitioners request, and revised proposed order reflects, $6,289.32 rather than $11,036.40, proportionately based on each person's deposits into the account.

Dept. 303, 9:00 a.m. Tuesday, November 4, 2014

2. Examiner Notes previously noted: Petitioners also request $19,795.00 in extraordinary services to the estate as described in Exhibit "C," which includes services rendered during the decedent's lifetime such as caring for the decedent during the conservatorship, paying bills, and later services including cleaning, organizing and maintaining the decedent's residence. Petitioners indicate 1,325 total hours and state that their cleaning and maintenance of the residence (described as sorting "hoarded" possessions) resulted in a $10,000 gain on the sale as a benefit to the estate.

However, Examiner notes that the Orders entered in the conservatorship matter do not indicate that any request for compensation for services rendered during the conservatee's lifetime was requested or to be expected. They only mention that a request for reimbursement as noted above would be forthcoming.

As such, the Court may require authority for the request for payment for services rendered prior to the conservatee's death as extraordinary expenses of the estate. (It is noted that Petitioner Marjorie Dauer-Piper, who was the sole conservator of the estate, has already been discharged.)

The Court may also require authority for including various tasks relating to final bills and funeral arrangements as extraordinary expenses, since these are typical estate expenses included in the statutory compensation considered by the Probate Code.

The Court may also require clarification regarding the benefit to the estate for the services rendered pursuant to Cal. Rules of Court 7.702. Petitioners request almost double the amount of gain on the sale of the house, so this does not appear to be a benefit to the estate or to the creditor, DHS, which is owed over $190,000.00 according to the Creditor's Claim.

Lastly, it appears some of the entries/hours may be duplicated, such as entries on 3-9-13 for each petitioner showing six hours each spent on funeral arrangements.

Revised Supplement states that as the sole asset of the estate was real property, it was understood by the petitioners and the decedent that compensation for services would come from the estate once the property was sold in the same way that reimbursement for costs of the conservatorship were ordered to be paid from the proceeds of the sale. Although the final account of the conservators does not include an express order for compensation for such services, Petitioners maintained the deceased conservatee's residence, finances, and other matters with an expectation of compensation in addition to reimbursement.

The Revised Supplement states that had the petitioners not performed these services, others would have been hired to perform them and would have been paid from the conservatorship estate or estate. Petitioners state the requested hourly rate is reasonable estimate of the cost to hire others. Petitioners submit that approval of compensation for these services is in line with the previous order of the Court.

Petitioners state that the benefit to the estate cannot be measured solely by the $10,000.00 gain on the sale. The gain is based on the appraised value of the house on the decedent's date of death, which followed nearly three years of cleaning, maintenance, and yard care. Without the upkeep during conservatorship, it is likely the house would have appraised at under $55,000.00, leading to a lower sale price, and hurting the estate and the creditor.

		Petitioner states the child currently lives with her, and Petitioner's immediate concern is the child's father has contacted the mother via message through Facebook and has asked to see the child, and the mother is considering allowing the father to see the child. Petitioner states the child's father has not seen the child since she was 3 months old, and since that time he has been in and out of prison and abuses drugs, which is information he has posted on his Facebook page (please refer to attached copies.) Petitioner states the father was released from prison in June 2014 and claims in his Facebook posts to be clean and off drugs, but Petitioner does not want the child to be subjected to visitation with him if he is still involved in drugs and may return to prison. Petitioner states temporary guardianship is needed because she needs to get dental care for the child now, as she has a toothache and Petitioner cannot obtain Medi-Cal for her and get her treated without a guardianship.		Reviewed by: LEG Reviewed on: 10/31/14 Updates: Recommendation: File 24 – Murray
